

SECTION 3
EIGHT PAGES

The Sun.

NEW YORK, SUNDAY, DECEMBER 29, 1918.
Copyright, 1918, by the Sun Printing and Publishing Association.

PICTORIAL
MAGAZINE

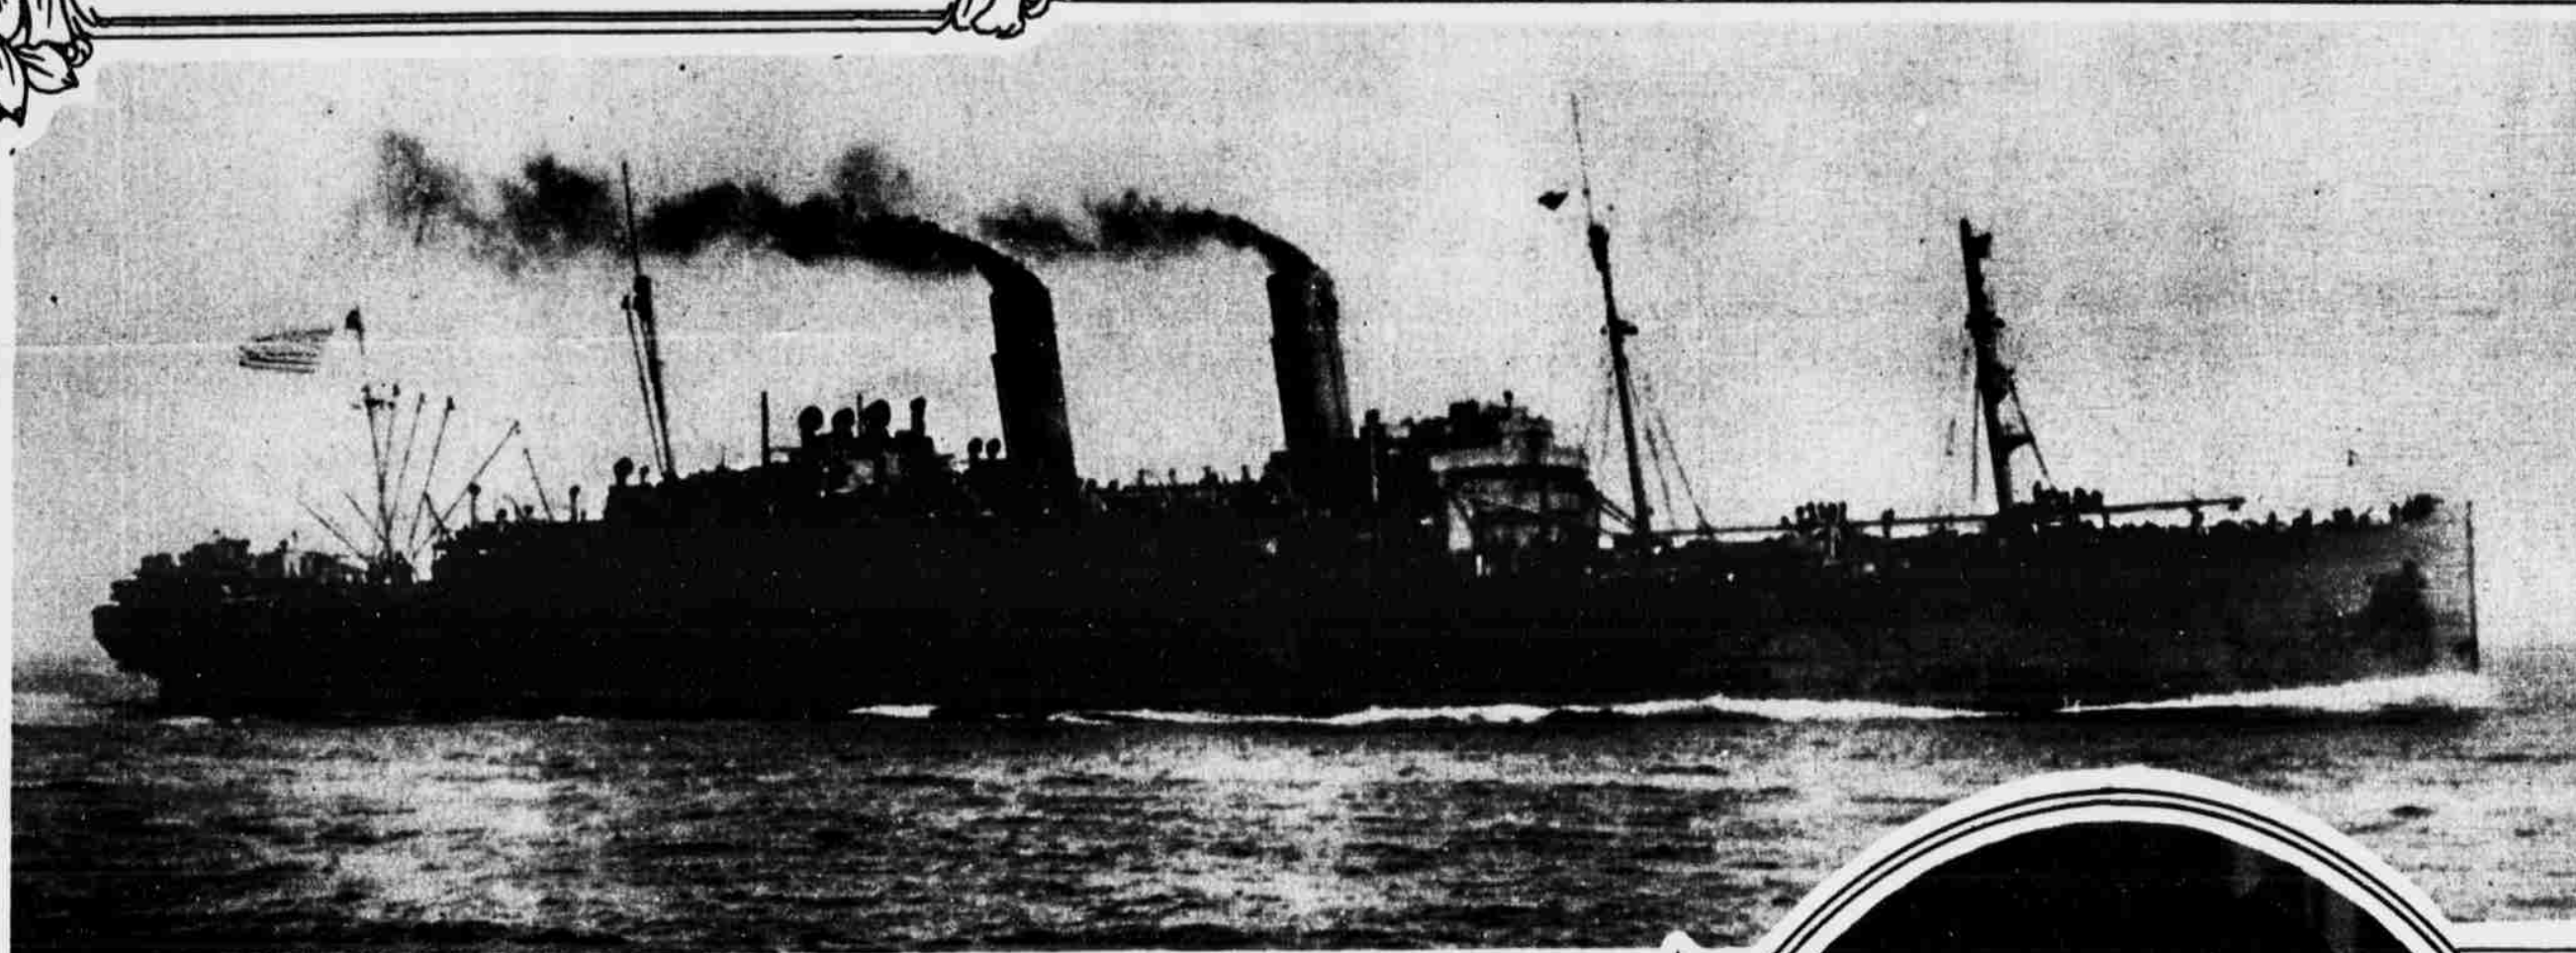

First pictures of the President and Mrs. Wilson arriving at Brest. The photographs reached America in the George Washington on its return trip.

Copyright, International Film.

The Presidential party aboard the George Washington on arrival in France, December 13 last. Left to right: Commander F. M. Perkins, Miss Benham, Mrs. Wilson, the President, Capt. McCauley.

Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.

The George Washington steaming into the harbor at Brest, France, December 13 last, with the Presidential party aboard.

Photo, Underwood & Underwood.

Group photograph of the Hohenzollern family, erstwhile reigning house in the old German Empire. Right to left: Prince Oscar and wife; Duke of Brunswick, his wife and two children; Prince August Wilhelm, wife and child; Prince Joachim and wife; ex-Kaiser and former Kaiserin; ex-Crown Prince, wife and five children; Prince Adelbert and wife; Prince Eitel Friedrich and his wife (now divorced).

Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.

New York State's most famous dog, the Great Dane that guards Governor-elect A. E. Smith. Arthur William and Walter Joseph Smith, the Governor's sons, are holding him for a SUN staff photographer.